A very warm welcome onboard from the entire Bridge Team of the Pacific Encounter. Today at around 16:00 Pacific Encounter will let go her mooring lines and start to thrust off the Brisbane International Cruise Terminal. Once off the berth we will start our long journey out through the Brisbane Channel, with the assistance of our marine pilot. Be sure to check out Moreton Island, which we will pass on our starboard side, this island is the third largest Island made entirely of sand and has the highest coastal sand dunes in the world, reaching an impressive height of 285m. At around 19:00 we will then disembark our pilot and start our journey in open sea.
