NAHA - OKINAWA, JAPAN

The sophistication, elegance and ages-old culture of Japan. You can discover the ancient beauty of the Okinawa islands. Belonging to the archipelago of Ryūkyū, their capital is Naha. There are many attractions and monuments that can be visited. These include the Ryukyumura village and the UNESCO World Heritage site: Shikinaen Garden, where you can admire the characteristic wooden buildings with red tile roofs that overlook an artificial lake and vegetation that inspire meditation and peace.

NAH52 - CULTURAL & HISTORICAL OKINAWA

Find out more about Okinawan culture and history on a half-day outing that begins with a coach ride to the city of Tomigusuku, south of Naha. This is where, in 1944, members of the Japanese Navy Engineering Corps dug 450 m of underground tunnels that then served as the Japanese Navy's secret headquarters.

Important to know

A HEALTHY SHIP

To help prevent the spread of colds, flu and upset stomachs, make sure to wash your hands thoroughly with soap and hot water after using the bathroom. Use a clean paper towel to open bathroom doors after washing your hands, and make use of hand sanitizers around the ship.

THEATRE SHOW RESERVATION

Reservations are mandatory for shows in the esteemed London Theatre located on Deck 6, Fwd of our ship. We offer various convenient methods for making a reservation, including utilizing the Smart TV available in your cabin, utilizing any of the interactive touch-screens strategically positioned around the ship, and accessing the MSC for Me App.

CCTV & CODE OF CONDUCT

To promote public safety and awareness, the ship is equipped with closed-circuit television "CCTV" cameras. As we want to provide a truly enjoyable cruise experience, any behaviour affecting the comfort, health and safety of any Guest or crew cannot be tolerated. Remember drinking excessively dulls instincts and awareness of danger, especially when leaning on ship railings.

There will be filming on board the ship this week. If you do not wish to be featured, please advise the television crew when they are filming.
