In the port of Burnie, Australia

Arrival time: 9.00am | All aboard time: 4.30pm

Port Highlights

The city of Burnie, situated on the north west coast of Tasmania, south east of the Australian mainland, is Tasmania's most westerly city, it has a northerly aspect and it is nestled around Emu Bay on Bass Strait. Burnie was proclaimed a city by Queen Elizabeth II on April 26, 1988 and nowadays, is a diversified and attractive place that celebrates its industrial past (and still is a busy container port), and embraces its bright and creative future. The 20,000 residents enjoy a vibrant shopping district that spills onto the beach for seafood and coffee. It has a dynamic cultural life, galleries, performances, exhibitions and community events. With about 40 percent of Tasmania designated as world heritage area, Burnie's hills hide impressive gardens and parks, and it is surrounded by beautiful beaches, sparkling water and fresh air.
